SPRING 2019

God's Big Story - in bite-sized bits

The Drama of Salvation in Six Acts

Steve Chilcraft

Venue: Whaddon Way Church, Bletchley

Tuesday: 7.45pm

What is the Bible about? How do we understand something so complex in a meaningful way? Is there a central, unifying message? Much of it is narrative or in poetic form and uses unfamiliar concepts, rather than direct instruction, so why is that important today? What are its key moments? In just eight sessions we will survey the whole Bible and construct a framework for understanding it. Using the model of a six-part (unfinished) drama, in which we are players, we will trace the story told in Scripture and provide a framework for further study.

1. Introduction
Act 1. Creation
Act 2. The Fall
2. Act 3. Scene 1. Israel from beginnings to the Promised Land
3. Act 3. Scene 2. Kings and Prophets
4. Act 3. Scene 3. Law, Wisdom and Worship
5. Act 3. Scene 4. Division, Destruction, Exile and Return. Plus, what happened between the testaments
6. Act 4. Jesus the Messiah
7. Act 5. The Church from beginnings to now
8. Act 6. Our Great hope - looking forward
